[From the Boston Pilot] The Ride of Collins Graves.

AN INCIDENT OF THE FLOOD IN MASSACHUSETTS OF

MAY 16TH, 1874. BY JOHN BOYLE O'REILLY. No song of a soldier riding down

To the raging fight from Winchester town : No song of a time that shook the earth With the nation's three at a nation's birth But the song of a brave man, free from fear As Sheridan's self or Paul Revere : Who risked what they risked, free from strife And its promise of glorious pay-his life. The peaceful valley has waked and stirred, And the answering echoes of life are heard; The dew still clings to the trees and grass, And the early tollers smiling pass. As they glance saide at the white-walled homes, Or up the valley, where merrily comes The brook that sparkles in diamond rills As the sun comes over the Hampshire hills. What was it, that passed like an ominous breath? Like a shiver of fear or a touch of death? What was it? The valley is peaceful still,

And the leaves are afire on top of the hill; it was not a sound, nor a thing of sense-But a pain, like the pang of the short suspense That wraps the being of those who see At their feet the gulf of Eternity! The air of the valley has felt the chill; The workers pause at the door of the mill: The housewife, keen to the shivering air, Arrests her foot on the cottage stair Instinctive taught by the mother-love, And thinks of the sleeping ones above ! Why start the listeneral Why does the course Of the mili-stream widen! Is it a horse! Hark to the sound of his boofs, they say,

That gallops so wildly Williamsburg way ! God: what was that, like a human shrick From the winding valley? Will nobody speak? Will pobody answer those women who cry As the awful warnings thunder by?

Whence come they? Listant And now they hear The sound of the galloping horse-hoofs near; They watch the trend of the vale, and see The rider, who thunders so menacingly, With waving arms and warning scream, To the home-filled banks of the valley stream He draws no rein, but he shakes the street 'the a shoot and the ring of the galloping feet, and this the cry that heft logs to the wind:

"To the hills for your lives! The flood is behind.

He cries and is gone; but they know the worst-The tracherous Williamsburg dam has burst ! The basin that nourished their happy homes Is changed to a demon-It comes ! it comes ! A monster in aspect, with shaggy front Of shattered dwellings, to take the brunt

Of the dwellings they shatter-white-maned and hoarse The merciless terror fills the course Of the narrow valley, and rushing raves, With death on the first of its hissing waves, Till cottage and street and crowded mill Are crumbled and crushed.

In front of the roaring flood is heard The gailoping horse and the warning word. Thank God, that the brave man's life is spared! From Williamsburg town he nobly dared To race with the flood and to take the road In front of the terrible swath it moved, For miles it thundered and crushed behind, But he looked ahead with a steadfast mind; "They must be warned !" was all be said, As away on his terril-le ride he sped.

When heroes are called for, bring the crown. To this Yankee rider: send him down On the stream of time with the Curtius old His deed as the Roman's was brave and bold And the tale can as noble a thrill awake, For he offered his life for the people's sake.

novelties than any other city in America. Thirteen of these novelties are Common Councilmen who have never been charged with bribery. His Justification.—An ingenious baker sought to justify the high price of his loaves by saying that he had it on the authority of an eminent naturalist that the doe belongs to the deer tribe. Mrs. Grundy says that if you wish to see a fine display of diamonds upon the human form you must secure an introduction to the ugliest afan to be found at a fashionable watering to her at her chamber window. The Providence Press tells of a married couple who were passing a jewelry store the other day. Her attention was attracted by a " betly lovely" pair of ear rings. Said she : " Ned, WILDER & CO., go buy 'em!" and Ned went by 'em. Successors to Dowsett & Co. " Because, Ma, G --- is too modest CONFECTIONER, NO. 49 HOTEL ST., dent door to C. E. Williams, Honolulu. to ask me to marry him, and perhaps, if I could fill a blank declaration, he would sign it."

A young printer of Bridgeport, went serenading his sweetheart the other night. Just as he had reached that pathetic part of the song "I am lonely to-night love without thee," the girl's father and two dogs appeared in sight around the corner, and his loneliness fled for about two

An Irishwoman at a loss for a word, went into a drug store, and looked much puzzled, said she had come for some medicine, but the name had slipped her mind 'intirely,' but sounded like Paddy in the garret. The druggist willing to *make a sale,' tried to think what it could be, and hit upon Paragoric. "Indade thin, that's it," said she, obtaining the medicine and going away delighted, that she had come so near the

CHEWING & SMOKING TOBACCO! THE RIDGE HOUSE! KEALAKEKUA BAY HAWAII. THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS ARE noted the world over for their unrivaled salubrity of climate. Certain localities in the group are espec-ially favored in this way.—The District of Kona, on the leeward side of Hawali, has long been famed as a place of resort for invalids with bronchital, or lung diseases. With its pure and mild atmosphere, with its absolute freedom from storms or high winds, with its porous soll which, with all its rich vegetation, retains no dampness and yields no malaris, and with an unvarying temperature—that of the American or Southern European June—ALL THE YEAR ROUND, the climate of Kona is one of the healthlest and most juxuricas on The undersigned, at his house at Kaawalon, a house unequaled in the district for size cleanings, commediousness, and thoroughness of furnishing, is prepared to give boarders excellent rooms and all obtainable comforts in the way of diet, at the low rate of $ 5.00 per week. There are fresh water baths on the premises, and fine sea bathing within a short distance. The steamer Kilanea and the schooners Ullama and Prince, run The steamer Allabora and the Manwalon landing, regularly between Honolulu and the Kanwalon landing.

The undersigned employs no agents nor runners. His house has fee itself upon inspection.
